
Gretchen Talley Park Expansion?

Posted by Danno111 - 2008/05/20 07:14

Does anyone know what the future holds for the small field that's connected to Gretchen Talley Park (on Dove)? I hope it's going to become an addition to the park instead of new homes.

Last that I heard the developer is going to put houses in, I guess the city wanted to buy that parcel when the park was first put in but the owner didn't want to sale it at that time. But maybe there is still a chance of it being part of the park if the housing is still in a slump.
