
Martial Arts School

Posted by newtotracy - 2007/05/14 21:04

Hello,

We are new to the area and would like some recommendations for a martial arts school in town for our 3 children. I've seen a few as we are exploring around but haven't yet contacted any.

Thanks in advance,

Michael P.

=====

Re:Martial Arts School

Posted by bc76 - 2007/05/14 22:08

newtotracy,

I currently attend Charles Gracie's Brazilian Jiu Jitsu Academy. I have been attending the school since Mid-December. Charles and his instructors are great guys who work well with children. I have watched a few of the kids classes and they all seem to be having a great time. However, it may be a little expensive. Here is a link to the webpage if you are interested:

<http://www.charlesgracie.com/academy-tracy.htm>

=====

Re:Martial Arts School

Posted by kn1v3s37 - 2007/05/14 22:46

Hey,

I attend Delta Kajukenbo (you may see the ad on the side of the page) and it's a great school. Definately the cheapest school in tracy, with an extremely experienced instructor.

The number for the school is 835-5845, and the website is <http://www.deltakajukenbo.com/>

See you around!

=====

Re:Martial Arts School

Posted by marco - 2007/05/31 06:56

kn1v3s37 wrote:

Hey,

I attend Delta Kajukenbo (you may see the ad on the side of the page) and it's a great school. Definately the cheapest school in tracy, with an extremely experienced instructor.

The number for the school is 835-5845, and the website is <http://www.deltakajukenbo.com/>

See you around!

I lost first a kid and now my wife to Delta Kajukenbo;-) So I believe they must like it;-)

Have fun.

=====

Re:Martial Arts School

Posted by LDavis - 2007/05/31 13:23

My son and I attended Delta Kajukenbo back when he was in high school. I had read that it would help him concentrate in school.

It was fantastic for him and did help with his concentration and focus. Sifu (Frank) was great. It was a little hard on me at my age, but I did benefit from it. It is fun practicing the kata's with him.

I'd say thumbs up to send your kids there and you might want to join them too!

=====